Federal Student Loan Debt

Calendar Year(s)	Most recent three year cohort default rate, as reported by the United State Department of Education. ¹	The percentage of enrolled students in 2023/2024 receiving federal student loans to pay for this program.	The percentage of graduates in 2023/2024 who took out federal student loans to pay for this program.	The average amount of federal student loan debt of 2023/2024 graduates who took out federal student loans at this institution.

¹The percentage of students who defaulted on their federal student loans is called the Cohort Default Rate (CDR). It shows the percentage of this school's students who were more than 270 days (9 months) behind on their federal student loans within three years of when the first payment was due. This is the most recent CDR reported by the U.S. Department of Education. Santa Ana Beauty College is eligible, but chooses not to participate in federal student aid programs. Therefore, students who attend this institution do not have federal student loans.

Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a full refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session (first day of classes), or the seventh day after enrollment (seven days from the date when enrollment agreement was signed), whichever is later.

After the end of the cancellation period, you also have the right to stop school at any time; and you have the right to receive a pro-rata refund if you have completed 60 percent or less of the enrollment period in the entire course.

The notice of cancellation shall be in writing and submitted directly to the Financial Aid Office at following address: SANTA ANA BEAUTY COLLEGE, 1926 W 17th Street, Santa Ana, CA 92706.

If the enrollment Agreement is canceled the school will refund the student any money he/she paid, less a registration or administration fee not to exceed $250, and less any deduction for equipment not returned in good condition, within 45 days after the notice of cancellation is received.

If the applicant is not accepted by the school, he/she is entitled for a full refund except a non-refundable registration or administration fee. Once more than 60 percent of the enrollment period in the entire course has elapsed (including absences), there will be no refund to the student. If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student may be entitled to a refund of monies not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

Course Cancellation: If a course is cancelled subsequent to a student's enrollment and before instruction in the course has begun, the school provides a full refund of all monies paid. If a school cancels a course or program and ceases to offer instruction after students have enrolled and instruction has begun, the school shall provide a pro-rata refund for all students transferring to another school based on the hours accepted by the receiving school.

School Closure: If the school closes permanently and ceases to offer instruction after students have enrolled and instruction has begun, the school must make arrangements for students to complete the program at another school and provide a pro-rata refund for all students transferring to another school based on the hours accepted by the receiving school
